La Village neighborhood is a little piece of luxury tucked away between Lafayette and Scott. 209 Belle Maison is the perfect example of earth and style. This French provincial style home has a front porch and grand entrance to be envious of. As you enter the grand front door entrance, you step onto Italian travertine tile as you overlook the living and dining areas. The living and dining areas feature antique pine wood floors. The 4th bedroom in this trip-split floor plan is across the kitchen with its own en suite and built in office space. Guests can have access to the kitchen without disturbing the rest of the household. The primary suite features a very large walk in closet and a large spa like bathroom. The cathedral ceiling in the kitchen is accented with beautiful beaded cypress and the floor is brick pavers. Plantation shutters throughout gives this home an historic feel. With no homes built directly behind this one and the backyard lined with trees, you get more of an out-in-the-country feeling when relaxing on the back patio. Whole home Generac generator (2023) is a plus. Some parts of this home you just have to see to believe. Schedule your showing today!
