Precious home with large kitchen and living area. New colors and a fresh, clean atmosphere engage buyers as they walk through this lovely home. The house offers a flex space which is perfectly situated directly off the side entry. This room has large windows, bamboo flooring, a privacy pocket door and offers any buyer a bonus space for extra den, playroom, craft room, office or even storage. The side entry opens up to a huge space which could be a dropoff area/mudroom. Continuing up three steps brings the buyer into the combination kitchen/dining room which has a snackbar, island and opens to the large living area. All appliances remain and counter space is at a premium. Lots of windows throughout bring lovely shaded views from all sections of this large, treed yard. A total of 4 bedrooms, a wonderful laundry closet and two big bathrooms complete this comfortable and contemporary home's interior. Walking through the house and out to the back deck, a buyer is surprised with a large concrete patio and spa/hot tub. This back patio is fully covered and looks into a beautiful grassy yard for a future pool or playground. As the buyer drives onto the lot the shared driveway splits off and a wonderful carport with an attached storage room allows covered parking for two cars. This one is priced well and is marketed as is... the amenities, location and
