One-owner home since new construction and well-maintained, even getting an interior paint refresh in order to look its best for the new occupants! This home is well positioned, backing up to a protected pond and natural area so no chance of future neighborhood expansion or development taking away from the calmness and the open-sky view in the backyard! One of the neighborhood's largest lots. Cooks will love the gas stove and bright, sociable kitchen outfitted with granite counters and tiled backsplash. Four bedrooms in a split layout with living areas nestled toward the back, offering great flow for entertaining in the back yard. Primary bedroom has a generous en suite bath and walk-in closet. Also available for purchase. Pets may be considered on a per-case basis, and applicants without pets are preferred.
