Looking for the perfect hunting camp or peaceful getaway? This 2-bedroom, 1-bath home on 5.5 acres in Bayou Chicot offers privacy, nature, and endless potential. Tucked away in a secluded setting near a local hunting club, this property is a dream for outdoor enthusiasts, with deer and other wildlife frequently seen throughout the property. The home could use some TLC, making it a great opportunity for someone looking to create their own retreat. Enjoy your morning coffee or unwind after a day outdoors on the screened-in front porch, and stay warm during cooler months with the rustic wood-burning stove. One of the standout features is the abundance of storage and workspace. The property includes three shops--two with roll-up doors--plus an additional storage shed, providing plenty of room for ATVs, hunting gear, tractors, boats, tools, or other equipment. Surrounded by mature trees and the peaceful beauty of the outdoors, this property is full of possibilities. Whether you're looking for a hunting camp, a recreational getaway, or a private place to escape, this Bayou Chicot property is ready for its next chapter.
