5 Bedrooms | 3 Bathrooms | 3,928 Sqft

Designed with the unmistakable architectural signature of A. Hays Town, this ~51.95-acre estate offers an exceptional standard of classic Acadian living. Highlighted in Acadiana Profile magazine as "A Hidden Haven," the property provides an immersive blend of historical detail, uncompromised quality, and total privacy directly adjacent to Chicot State Park. The main residence features 5 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, a formal dining room, a quiet library, a sunroom, and an expansive utility space. Signature architectural elements run throughout the interior, including authentic brick and hardwood floors, exposed beam ceilings, and double-brick wall construction along the lower level. At the heart of the home, the living room centers around a grand fireplace, while the kitchen is equipped with solid granite counters and commercial-grade appliances designed for effortless entertaining. Outdoors, the grounds feature an authentic 1876 outdoor kitchen, a 2-car carport with overhead storage, a 5-acre stocked pond, a barn, and a 3-stall stable tailored for equestrian pursuits. Located just 4 miles off I-49, the estate pairs complete rural tranquility with convenient access to both Alexandria (~39 mins) and Lafayette (~50 mins).
