Welcome to Stately Plaza, Midtown Lafayette's premier office destination and home to a thriving community of high-impact professionals. This like-new building offers the kind of first-class environment that makes an immediate and lasting impression on prospects, clients, and employees alike. Perfectly positioned in the heart of Midtown, Stately Plaza provides unmatched convenience with quick access to the amenities that support both business performance and quality of life. The building features impressive entryways and common areas, a functional floor plate with elevator access, restrooms, a breakroom, a mailroom, and an on-site gym centrally located with offices surrounding it--giving growing businesses the opportunity to expand in place. Within a five-minute drive, you'll find everything your team needs: churches, daycares, gyms, tennis and pickleball courts, golf courses, the 100-acre Moncus Park with walking, jogging, biking, and hiking trails, a wide selection of restaurants, major medical services and hospitals, the post office, print shops, and Lafayette Regional Airport. Suite 287 is a second-floor suite located near the Stately Plaza Gym. This perimeter office features an open layout with natural light from a large window--ideal for classroom-style training, collaborative work areas, or multiple workstation
